Dated 19th April, 1935.

Dear Sir,

It is proposed that there should be illumination of the Ghats and the buildings at the river front on the evening of the 6th May 1935 in order to celebrate the King Emperor's Silver Jubilee. May I request you kindly to make necessary arrangements for cleaning and white washing the building of your temple and for making illuminations at Ghat. I may inform you that the Benares Electric Supply Co. has agreed to charge for Electricity for that night at the rate of -/1/6 per unit only, allowing a discount of 3 pice therefrom if the payment is made within 15 days.

As the time is short I hope you will kindly make prompt arrangements. A line in reply will oblige.

Yours sincerely,

City Magistrate.
